Gloves are coming in handy.
When you try a person to see if they have a bad temper, it is like touching a coal of fire to gunpowder to see whether it is good or not.

The Kansas City Southern is changing hands so often these days that the employees of the road must be wondering whether they are going to wake up in the morning with a job or not.

It is announced from Washington that smallpox is epidemic in some parts of the Kiowa country but it does not seem to affect the general desire for the opening to be hastened.—Ex.

Nothing can stop that opening.
The city making the largest percentage of growth in ten years, according to the official, census report—barring Greater New York, which grew by absorption—is Los Angeles, Cal. The next highest record belongs to St. Joseph, Mo., with 96.81 per cent.

The claims of the National committees are hard to unravel. Each claims a victory for McKinley or Bryan with such certainty that the average reader don't know "straight up." The cold facts will be here in a very few days, however, and then we can listen to the reasons why they were thusly. Politics is the queerest of queer questions.

Yesterday the Whiteman brothers received a message from their mother, who has been visiting in Jackson, La., for several months, containing the sad intelligence of the death of their grandmother, Mrs. Mary H. Taylor. Mrs. Taylor died at her home in Jackson yesterday morning at 6 o'clock, at the advanced age of 78 years.—Ardmoreite.

The whiteman Brothers are our wholesale commission men and the Express extends sympathy.

Two things are absolutely essential to the growth and prosperity of any town, a good sewerage system and an ample water supply. Chickasha has neither the one nor the other. A water system is easily within reach of the town, if the authorities would only see the matter in a proper light. A franchise offered without too binding restrictions would bring the needed water in a short time. The drainage can come later. The need of a water supply has been felt two or three times in Chickasha, and will be felt again before we have it, unless some move is made. The city council could give the city a water supply if they would. Why not?

A point in law was recently settled in Illinois. A man and wife were killed in a storm, leaving a daughter. If the father died first the wife's relatives became heirs to the estate. If the wife died first the daughter inherited all. No means were at hand to decide which died first. The court decided that the man being the stronger would live the longest in such straight and so decided and the daughter inherited the estate of about $10,000.

The melancholy days have come, And for the folk who bet November 7 will be found The melancholiest yet.

The largest toy factory in the world is in New York, where playthings in tin are manufactured by the million. It stands five stories high, and turns out 1,607 distinct varieties in tin toys. The output of circular tin whistles is 2,000,000 per annum. To make a tin horse 12 inches long dies have to be cast costing $65. The children of different countries have different tastes, but tin swords are wanted all over the world, the military instinct being as universal in the nurseries as in the courts and cabinets of the world.

Some idea of the export of cotton from this country may be derived from the fact that stevedores put 22,782 bales of cotton on board ship at New Orleans on one day, recently, surpassing, it is said, any single day's record in the history of that port. On the same day two vessels cleared with 22,000 and 11,000 bales, respectively.
